NORFOLK, April 20, 1886.

It is greatly feared that Mr. Charles Geogh and Mr. Jazzes Warren, of Brambleton, near this city, have been drowned in Chesapeake bay. They left here on the 30th of March in a small sail-boat called the "Irene" for the Eastern Shore to spend several days in fishing. They have not been heard of since, and as the weather was thick and squally on the bay that night, it is generally supposed the small craft floundered and the men perished. Had the men gotten across the bay safely they would have been heard from in a day or two. or two.

There are no wrecking vessels here to go to the two stranded schooners on the Eastern shore. Both vessels will be

Court Matters - Interesting Trial -Farming Notes, &c.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch. APRIL 19, 1886. Our spring term of the Circuit Court is just over, and a fair amount of busi-ness was transacted. The case that attracted most of the public interest was the application of Tyler Bell (colored) for a new trial upon exceptions taken at his last trial by the County Court in the December term, when he was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years.
Judge Irving granted him a new trial mainly upon the ground that at his preliminary trial upon his plea of a former trial the jury which tried the issue should have been composed of sixteen jurors from which the prisoner should tribe off four, as in ordinary cases of strike off four, as in ordinary cases of felony, which, in his case, was not done.

The circumstances of the crime were these: About twelve months ago George Tucker (colored), who had been the colored of the crime were these can be companied to the colored of the crime were these can be colored of the crime were the colored of the crime were these can be colored of the crime were the colore rike off four, as in ordinary cases of George Tucker (colored), who had been for some years working a portion of the farm of the late William W. Cosby and making such good crops and behaving himself in other respects so well that he had succeeded in obtaining the conditions of the farm of Mr. Cosby, deposited a crop of tehescen in which himself Trales Ball to Janney; the Century Company, Harper Brothers, and the American Tract Society, New York; Mrs. Ernest H. Harper Brothers, and the American Cock, Mrs. W. P. Robinson, Danville; Miss Charlotte M. Bulkley, Southport, Conn.; Miss Ida Palmer, Colonel William P. Marcock Mrs. P. C. Harper Brothers, and the American Cock, Mrs. W. P. Robinson, Danville; Miss Charlotte M. Bulkley, Southport, Conn.; Miss Ida Palmer, Colonel William P. Marcock Mrs. H. Walton, Mrs. H. dence of Mr. Cosby, deposited a crop of tobacco in which himself, Tyler Bell, and Mr. Cosby and others were joint and Miss Lillie L. Shumate, Greenville, owners in a large frame tobacco-barn of Mr. Cosby's. By night the tobacco was taken from the house by George Tucker, Tyler Bell, and their accom-plices and hauled to Rock Castle depot, on the Richmond and Alleghany railread. Arriving there very early in the morning, they shipped the to-bacco that day to Messrs. Sublett & Fitzgerald, from whom one of the party received the proceeds. The covered on the next day, on the follow-ing night the barn was burnt by some of the parties. Upon a vigilant investi-gation prosecuted by Mr. Cosby, he dis-covered, in addition to some suspicious circumstances in George Tucker's con-duct, that he had effected an insurance for the full value of the tobacco. Immediately upon finding that he was suspected Tucker left, went to Richmond, received the money from the fire-insurance company, and fied to parts unknown. Tyler Bell and eight others were arrested, and all gave bail from court to court except Tyler, who has been in jail for about twelve months—the cases having been continued until this time from various causes.

At the January court, the first term of our present county judge, he ordered a dismissal in eight of the cases, as it is hardly probable that there can be any conviction in any of them since the death of Mr. Cosby, who was the principal conviction in any of them since the death of Mr. Cosby, who was the principal witness for the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth's attorney was supported by Mesars. Coleman and Smith, and the criminals defended by Mr. Charles Page, of Manchester. These cases have been a great obstruction to public business, and have in all cost the Commonwealth a very large sum, there being several trials, a very large number of witnesses on both sides, some of them from a distance. RUINED AT MONTE CARLO. An Erie Woman Driven to Suicide by Losses at the Gaming-Table. An Erie, Pa., special says: The cable dispatch which announced the desperate attempt of Mrs. Jennie Whitomb to take her life on account of heavy losses at the gaming-table at Monte Carlo has been supplemented by a letter to a relative. Mrs. Whitcomb was formerly a Miss Jennie Smith, and lived in this vicinity. She was an assistant principal in the Conneautville

Since then she has lived in Europe and, as the reports go, was a very prominent figure at the gaming-tables in Paris' leading salons. Five years ago she was very rich, but luck turned against her, and her ill-gotten gains went quicker than they were amassed. After several days and nights at the table she was left penniless and distracted. She first swallowed morphine, and failing to destroy herself then opened a vein in her arm with a hai.pin. Being frus-trated in both attempts, she then threw herself in the sea at Cannes, but was rescued by a boatman, and was placed n the insane asylum at that place, where she is now being treated. Friends in this State will endeavor to have her returned here.

Iwo Brothers Taken from Officers and Riddled with Bullets.

Anthony, Kan., April 19.—About two months ago a fight occurred in the village of Danville, near this place, between two brothers named Weaver and a man named Adel. The latter was fatally wounded, and the Weaver boys were arrested and hurried away to avoid a mob. Last week they were returned for trial, but the cases were continued for the term, with bail fixed at $10,000 each. At 1 o'clock this morning a mob of forty armed men surrounded the residence of the sheriff, where the prisoners were under guard, in this city. The guard hearing them rushed the prisoners out the back door and into the basement of about the face.

Several bonds of the city several years overdue, from which all the coupons had been cut and collected at mapons had been cut and collected at defended themselves in their struggle for life with a revolver which they had taken from one of the deputies. They were finally overpowered by the mob and disarmed. Ropes were placed about their necks and preparations were made to hang them to the rafters, but the trample of approaching feet scared the mob; so they fired fifteen or twenty shots into each man, literally shooting them to pieces, and mounting their horses rode rapidly away. The mother of the boys and the wife of one of them witnessed the entire

SATURDAY, MAY 1. 1886.

AT 12 O'CLOCK M.—Pursuant to authority vested in me under the will of the late Mrs. Eveline G. Marshall I shall on the day, at the hour, and at the place mentioned, offer for sale to the highest bidder that beautiful place near the city known as VIOLET BANK, containing 159 ACRES, more orless. The dwelling has some ten or twelve rooms; a kitchen and several buildings on the place, insured in the Mutual Assurance Society of Virginia; wells and springs of pure and mineral water; a meadow which could be made excellent. The trees and shrubbery on the place are attractive, and altogether a more beautiful or desirable place will not soon be in market in this locality.

A UCTION SALE OF A NICE LIT-TILE SUBURBAN HOME.—By request of the owner, we will sell by auction, upon the premises, on THURSDAY, APRIL 22, 1886,

THURSDAY, APRIL 22, 1888, at 5 o'clock P. M., that NICE LITTLE PLACE containing 4 ACRES OF LAND, with a comfortable Frame Dwelling, containing 5 rooms, closets, and the usual out-houses, situated in the northern limits of the city, fronting on Roane street, and immediately opposite the residence of Mrs. Rosion Keck. This place is specially adapted to the wants of truckers and dairymen, or both combined. There is a never-failing spring upon the premises, nicely hricked over and beautifully shaded. Owing to the nearness of this property to the city, it should attract the attendance of those who desire city and country life combined.
